LOT 2372

A late 19th century art pottery jug, probably Belgian, the pierced spout modelled as a fish head, the ovoid body incised with a bird and foliage, height 25cm.

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

Typical overall fine crazing to the glaze, but otherwise in good condition with no cracks, chips or restoration. There are two pinhead sized minuscule glaze nicks to the rim of the spout.
