

Coins, Banknotes and Medallions / Wed, 15th October 2025 / Lot 4154

LOT 4154

An Edward III hammered gold half-noble 1327-1377, fourth coinage, Treaty period, saltire before Edward, mintmark cross, London Mint, Sp 1506, weight 3.8g (good-very fine on a nice full flan).

Estimate: £700 - £1,000

Condition Report

4154. Overall even wear/worn. The eyes are not visible, not directly damaged but with wear/worn. Possibly had some dressing to edges, one or two areas look touched but cannot be sure, if they have then done to an exceptional standard and some time ago - can supply further images on request.

Created: Fri, 10th October 2025 12:58