

Clocks and Barometers / Thu, 16th October 2025 / Lot 1155

LOT 1155

A late 19th century French engraved gilt brass oval cased carriage alarm clock by Drocourt, the eight day movement with platform escapement striking hours, half hours and alarm on a gong, with push repeat mechanism, the backplate with stamped maker's mark and numbered '7707', the white enamelled dial with black Roman hour and outer Arabic minute numerals above a subsidiary alarm dial, all framed by a foliate scroll engraved gilt surround, the oval case finely engraved with foliate scrolls, the swing scroll handle above bevelled glass panels, on a moulded base, height 17cm, with winding key.

Estimate: £1,000 - £1,500

Condition Report

1155. The clock is in generally good clean condition. Enamelled dials are good. Case in good order with crisp engraving and all glass panels in good condition.

Both trains wind smoothly, strike and repeat mechanisms working as they should and it is currently running, but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch.

Created: Mon, 13th October 2025 16:27