

LOT 1006

A Tibetan brown patinated bronze phurba (ritual dagger), 19th/20th century, the stepped handle cast with three tiers of three deity masks below a horse-head terminal, centred with a vajra knop and zoomorphic mask issuing a triple-sided blade, length 38.4cm, with hardwood stand.

Provenance: the Alain Presencer Collection.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

1006. Good condition, only minor surface scratches and wear.

Created: Tue, 4th November 2025 14:06