

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 13th November 2025 / Lot 1001

LOT 1001

A Tibetan gilt bronze figure of Mahassidha-Virupa, 17th/18th century, modelled seated in lalitasana on an antelope skin covered circular lotus base, blue and red detail to hair and facial features respectively, height 13.1cm. Provenance: the Alain Presencer Collection. Note: Virupa was an 8th-9th century Indian mahasiddha and yogi, and the source of important cycles of teachings in tantric Buddhism.

Estimate: £600 - £1,000

Condition Report

No significant damage or repairs.

Generally in good condition, typical light surface scratches and wear with slightly more pronounced wear to high points.

Probably re-touched gilt, detail to face and blue to hair.

Created: Tue, 4th November 2025 14:08