

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 13th November 2025 / Lot 1021

LOT 1021

A Chinese famille rose export porcelain plate, Yongzheng period, painted and gilt with figures within a scroll shaped panel, diameter 23cm (hairline), together with two Chinese Imari export porcelain saucer dishes, Kangxi period, painted and gilt with flowers, diameters 22.1cm and 22.7cm (one with hairline cracks and rim chips), and a Chinese underglaze blue and famille rose saucer dish, Qianlong period, painted with maiden and crane in a fenced garden, diameter 19.7cm (restored).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1021. Yongzhong famille rose plate - hairline crack across centre of plate (approx 10cm in length), numerous minor chips to rim, and wear to glaze and enamels.

Larger Imari saucer dish - 3 hairline cracks to rim and a 'U' shaped section of restoration to rim, also typical glaze fritting and minor chips to rim.

Other Imari dish - good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs. Typical light surface scratches and wear to gilt and enamels.

Smaller dish - the dish has been broken in half and restored with overpainting to front and back.

Created: Thu, 6th November 2025 14:25