

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 13th November 2025 / Lot 1175

LOT 1175

A Chinese famille rose porcelain incense burner and pierced cover, early 20th century, of cylindrical form with pierced apertures and band, painted with flowers, height 20cm, together with a Chinese famille rose small jar and cover, early 20th century, of drum form, painted with figural scenes, height 12.4cm (minor rim chips).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1175. Incense burner & cover - generally good condition, with no significant damage or repairs. Cover with small glaze chip to finial and a chip to one section of piercing. otherwise in good order. Typical light surface scratches and wear to glaze and enamels. The lower section with chips to rim of the incense holder, otherwise in good order.

Jar & cover - generally good condition, minor chips to rims of jar and cover, small chips and scuffs to top of cover, typical light surface scratches and wear to glaze, enamels and gilt. No significant damage or repairs.

Created: Thu, 6th November 2025 15:01