

LOT 1150

A Japanese silver vase by Mitsuhsa, Meiji period, the compressed globular body finely worked in relief with a dragon grasping a flaming pearl, on a hammered ground, beneath a flared narrow neck with engraved peony and paulownia-filled vertical lappet panels, on a circular foot, incised Mitsuhsa signature to base, weight 622g, height 28.5cm.

Estimate: £800 - £1,200

Condition Report

1150. Generally good clean condition with no significant damage or repairs. Good crisp decoration with good detail to relief dragon, hammered ground and engraving to neck. Minor dents to the flared neck, but nothing obviously noticeable or significant. Good crisp marks to base.

Created: Mon, 10th November 2025 14:33