

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 13th November 2025 / Lot 1144

LOT 1144

A Japanese Satsuma earthenware diminutive bottle vase by Kinkozan, Meiji period, the globular body with slender tapered neck, finely painted and gilt with opposing panels of samurai, reserved against a dark blue ground filled with gilt leaves, iron red painted signature and impressed seal mark to base, height 9.4cm.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

1144. Good condition, no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches and wear to gilt. Typical light crazing.

Created: Mon, 10th November 2025 14:57