

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 13th November 2025 / Lot 1108

LOT 1108

Ohara Koson (1877-1945) - a Japanese woodblock print depicting a moonlit scene of an owl on a branch with crescent moon beyond, 34cm x 18cm, framed and glazed.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

1108. The print is in generally good condition, some typical minor overall browning to the paper visible on the owl and moon. Few minor scratches and marks. Print is a little loose in the mount so would need securing. Frame in generally good condition with typical minor scuffs and chips to black in corners. Glass is good. Card back is taped in place.

Created: Tue, 11th November 2025 11:48