

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 13th November 2025 / Lot 1072

LOT 1072

A Chinese export silver cylindrical box and cover by Wang Hing, late 19th/early 20th century, the top and sides decorated in relief with dragons, maker's mark to base, weight 170.7g, height 5.6cm, together with a similarly decorated circular dish by Hung Chong, weight 66.6g, diameter 9.4cm.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

1072. Cylindrical box - generally good condition, typical light surface scratches and wear. Few minor dents and knocks but no significant damage or repair. Good clear marks. Cover fits tightly.

Dish is in good condition, typical light surface scratches and wear, but no significant damage. Good clear marks.

Created: Tue, 11th November 2025 11:50