LOT 1186

A Japanese lacquer jubako (food container), Meiji period, the four-tier box and cover decorated in gold with flowers on a nashiji ground, height 21cm, together with a similarly decorated fubako (scroll box), Meiji period, of rectangular form, decorated with gilt paulownia and leaves, length 23cm.

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

1186. Stacking box - in generally good condition with good fresh gilt and lacquer. Minor wear to gilt. Some very minor warping which gives some minor gapping between tiers and cover, but generally the boxes fit together well and pattern matches up.

Rectangular box - generally good condition. Cover with minor splits to two corners. Some retouching to decoration, otherwise fresh and vibrant.
