

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Wed, 26th November 2025 / Lot 3513

LOT 3513

A George III 1796 pattern officer's dress sword with straight single-edged blade, blade length 82cm, with engraved blued and gilt decoration with Royal arms and military trophies, gilt clam-form part-folding guard, wire bound grip and part-faceted pommel with foliate decoration.

Estimate: £70 - £100

---

Condition Report

3513. Overall untouched example.

Blade is ever so slightly rippled, deeper pitting and rust spotting in places, some light overall environmental damage, hilt is firm, pommel and knuckle guard loose, some breakdown with wire on grip and some bruising, folding guard works fine, no visible maker's marks.

Created: Mon, 24th November 2025 10:30