

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Wed, 26th November 2025 / Lot 3547

LOT 3547

A scarce and unusual double-barrelled flintlock sporting gun by Oakes, Horsham, with sighted barrels, barrel length 68cm, the central rib detailed 'Horsham', inlaid with gilt metal and with line border engraved locks, decorated with foliate and bird motifs, scrolling trigger guard, walnut stock with chequered fore-grip and ebonized pull-out ramrod, together with a brass mounted two-section gun cleaning rod.

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

2547. Generally untouched gun.

Both hammers full and half lock. Woodwork with general light bruising throughout. Pan covers a bit sloppy on joints, return scroll of trigger guard misshapen. Bruise to barrel near muzzle. Brass tip of ram-rod bruised in places.

Created: Mon, 24th November 2025 10:34