LOT 59

Attributed to Jacques-Émile Blanche (French 1861-1942) - Full-length portrait of Marie Blanche, as a child, seated in an interior on a pierced gothic design stool, wearing an ivory silk dress with layered lace collar, blue socks and black patent shoes, oil on canvas, 123cm x 93cm, within a reeded gilt frame. Provenance: purchased by the Swedish grandparents of the vendor when they married in Paris in 1910. It is believed the portrait was purchased directly from the artist and is of Blanche's daughter Marie. The vendor's ancestors were founders of a large timber mill industry in Sweden.

Estimate: £2,000 - £3,000

Condition Report

Painting dirty with discoloured varnish, minor retouchings visible upper left and upper right under u.v. light, very minor peripheral paint losses. Broad fine craquelure throughout. Needs cleaning, some very minor retouching.
