

Silver and Plate / Wed, 3rd December 2025 / Lot 404

LOT 404

A late Victorian plated three-bottle tantalus, the angular handle flanked by strapwork decoration above a locking folding bar front, on a rectangular stepped and ropetwist base, length 42cm, height 39cm, fitted with three square cut glass decanters and stoppers and three Crown Staffordshire bone china decanter labels, comprising 'Sherry', 'Whisky' and 'Gin' (minor chips to one stopper).

Estimate: £200 - £300

---

Condition Report

404. The tantalus is in generally good condition. Typical light surface scratches but nothing too significant. Typical surface wear commensurate with age, with more pronounced wear beneath the decanters, but no significant damage. Lock and bar work as they should. All decanters with chips around edges and corners of bases.

Created: Thu, 27th November 2025 16:17