

Objects of Virtu / Thu, 4th December 2025 / Lot 2308

LOT 2308

A George III silver dog's collar with red leather lined inside edge and padlock clasp, finely engraved 'Mary Thornton, Muggerhanger House, Biggleswade, Beds', diameter 8cm. Note: the inscription likely refers to the Thornton family who owned Moggerhanger House and commissioned Sir John Soane to remodel it in the late 18th century.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

2308. Some wear and loss to the red leather where the collar overlaps, but otherwise the condition is quite good with just some minor wear.

No hallmarks or key, but padlock does open.

Created: Fri, 28th November 2025 16:25