A fine late 18th century French bloodstone and gold mounted bodkin case, the shaped tapering body with finely chased foliate mounts and diamond inset button, length 9cm.

Estimate: £300 - £500

2330. The tiniest of small cracks to the corner of gold collar mount, only visible through a loupe. Otherwise, in really good order with just some very minor marks to the gold. The button release works well.
