LOT 678

A platinum, diamond, ruby and sapphire eternity ring, mounted with a row of circular cut diamonds between rows of baguette cut rubies and sapphires, with twin diamond set outer swing sides, unmarked, weight 11g, ring size approx O (some sapphires lacking).

Estimate: £600 - £900

Condition Report

678. The ring is structurally sound, but does have some significant wear and losses. The rim is a little dirty and would certainly benefit from a clean. The platinum central band has surface scratches, wear and some dents. Central band of diamonds appear to be good with bright sparkly stones. Rubies appear to be in generally good order with surface abrasions. Sapphires with similar wear and missing 4 or 5 to one of the bands.
