

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1493

LOT 1493

A Moorcroft Pottery circular bowl and cover, mid-20th century, decorated with hibiscus against a cobalt blue ground, impressed mark to base with applied paper label, diameter 17.5cm.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

Typical overall crazing to the glaze.

There is a small approx 1cm long vertical firing crack to the rim interior of the bowl, a manufacturing issue - not noticeable when the cover is in place. Otherwise in good condition with no damage or repairs.

Created: Tue, 2nd December 2025 12:15