LOT 2158

An 18th century and later fruitwood cricket table, the thick three-piece top raised on turned ash legs, height 70cm, diameter 76cm.

Estimate: £200 - £400

Condition Report

2158. The top has overall historic woodworm holes which have been filled, a gap between two of the timbers has an old fillet added as well as a triangular replaced section to the edge. Also has a few nail heads visible. The legs also have some woodworm to the tips but are nicely made and well polished.
