

LOT 1692

11th December 2025

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1692

LOT 1692

An English porcelain James Giles decorated teapot and cover, probably Worcester or Liverpool, circa 1760-70, painted with a version of the Stag Hunt pattern against a bianco-sopra-bianco ground beneath an iron red and yellow border, inscribed 'Stockspring Antiques' applied paper label to base, height 13cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

Chipping to end of spout. Curved haircrack around top of upper handle terminal which is mainly visible to the interior. Light surface scratches overall commensurate with age and not unsightly or terrible. Approx 5mm long chip to edge of cover and even smaller nick.

Otherwise in good condition. No restoration.

Created: Mon, 8th December 2025 12:08