

LOT 1703

11th December 2025

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1703

LOT 1703

A Rouen faience vase and cover, 20th century, the lobed high shouldered body painted in 18th century style with baskets of flowers and pendant flowers and scrollwork, the domed cover with bird finial, painted marks to base, height 50cm, together with two 20th century Dutch Delft vases and covers in 18th century style, painted marks to bases, 45cm and 34cm high (minor faults).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

Rouen vase and cover - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Larger Delft vase and cover - 2.5cm by 1.5cm section of neck rim broken away in two pieces and visibly glued back into position, the cover has a very small chip to the inner edge of the flange which is not visible when in position.

Smaller Delft vase and cover - some minor glaze fritting to edge of foot and cover and parts of main body, otherwise ok.

Created: Wed, 3rd December 2025 14:24