

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1433

LOT 1433

Five Barr, Flight & Barr Worcester Japan pattern plates, circa 1815, each painted and gilt with a standing Chinese figure holding a parasol in a chinoiserie garden within an elaborate Imari patterned rim with stylized foliate scrollwork, various impressed and puce printed marks to bases, three 21.3cm diameter, one 20.6cm diameter and one 24.4cm diameter, together with a Flight, Barr & Barr Worcester saucer dish painted with a similar pattern, diameter 19.8cm. Provenance: The Flight Collection.

Estimate: £250 - £350

Condition Report

Largest plate with small professionally restored chip to rim edge at 2 o'clock.

One of the 21.3cm diameter plates with minor chip to underside rim edge, the other two of this size are both in good condition.

The smallest plate is in good condition but has wear to the gilt rim edge and slightly more noticeable scratches in comparison to the other pieces in the lot.

Saucer dish is in good condition.

No crazing.

Created: Wed, 3rd December 2025 14:37