

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1415

LOT 1415

A Flight, Barr & Barr Worcester Japan pattern plate, early 19th century, painted and gilt in chinoiserie style with a long tailed bird in a blossoming tree flanked by flowers, the gilt rim with gadrooned moulding, impressed mark, diameter 25cm, together with two matching teacups and a saucer each with gadrooned rim, a teacup and saucer in the same pattern with plain gilt rim and three gadrooned rim cups and saucers in a different colourway of the same pattern, some impressed marks.

Provenance: The Flight Collection.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

Teacup and saucer with plain gilt rim - some wear to gilt rims and surface scratches.

Matching saucer with gadrooned rim - tiny chip to rim edge.

Otherwise all items in the lot are in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration and with good bright gilding and strong enamels with no wear.

Created: Thu, 4th December 2025 09:57