

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1479

LOT 1479

A mixed group of English and Continental pottery and porcelain, 19th and 20th century, including a Shelley Mabel Lucie Attwell teacup, three saucers, cereal bowl and a tea plate, diameter 17.5cm, a set of four Bisto blush ivory floral decorated coffee cups and saucers, a Continental potpourri and pierced cover supported by three bisque putti with reclining putto finial, pseudo Sèvres mark to base, height 30cm, a Cantagalli footed circular bowl, diameter 19.8cm, a pair of Doulton Silicon stoneware vases, height 14.5cm, a Royal Worcester aesthetic plate decorated with fish, diameter 26.5cm, four French pottery Plats Parlants plates and a Burleigh Ware 1935 silver jubilee commemorative teacup and saucer (some faults), together with a Boda Afors glass vase designed by Bertil Vallien, height 13cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

Mainly the lot is in good condition overall with no damage or repairs, a few things to note as follows:

- 2 Shelley Mabel Lucie Attwell saucers badly cracked.
- Burleigh Ware commemorative teacup and saucer crazed but ok.
- Gray's banded saucer crazed but ok.
- Sailor playing accordion with some professional restoration.
- Doulton Lambeth Victoria commemorative mug - restored.
- Boda glass vase with 2 chips to outer rim edge and other minor nibbles to relief decoration.
- Carlton Ware hangman mug - crazed but ok.
- Black ground vase with indistinct vertical haircrack to neck.

Created: Thu, 4th December 2025 16:06