

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1467

LOT 1467

A matched Flight, Barr & Barr Worcester part dessert service, early 19th century, probably painted by Davis, with circular panels of fancy or exotic birds within gilt weed framing and gilt gadrooned rims, comprising a square dish, length 23.5cm, one plate 23cm diameter, one plate 22.5cm diameter and three plates 22cm diameter, various impressed and printed marks to bases (some faults and restoration).
Provenance: The Flight Collection.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

2 plates and square dish in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Overall gilding and enamelling remains good and strong with minimal surface scratches commensurate with age and use.

One plate with small restored chip to underside rim edge at 4 o'clock resulting in some re-gilding to the rim edge in this area.

One plate with one small chip to underside rim edge not visible from upper surface.

One plate with two small chips to underside rim edge not visible from the upper surface.

Created: Mon, 8th December 2025 09:25