

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1519

LOT 1519

A Doulton Lambeth stoneware vase, early 20th century, decorated by Hannah Barlow, monogrammed, with grazing cattle between foliate panelled framing against a mottled blue/green ground, impressed and incised marks to base, height 32.5cm.

Estimate: £250 - £350

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

There are some minor scratches to the mottled glaze above the foot, but these are fairly indistinct and not immediately apparent.

Created: Mon, 8th December 2025 10:10