LOT 1808

A John Walsh Walsh Brocade pattern straw opalescent uranium glass vase, circa 1900, the dimpled body beneath a wavy rim, height 29cm, together with a similar pair of uranium opalescent trumpet shaped vases with vertical line detail, height 35cm, and a uranium opalescent vase with wrythen moulded line detail and wavy rim, height 32cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

One of the trumpet vases has a slightly reduced foot - it seems to be the whole circumference. It is not immediately apparent until you compare it to the other one which means you can see it is a little bit smaller and has a slightly thicker edge rather than tapering off.

Otherwise each item in the lot is in good condition with some light typical surface scratches commensurate with age and handling but no other damage or repairs.
