

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1691

LOT 1691

A small group of Coalport porcelain, early 20th century, comprising a blue and cream glazed ewer painted with an oval landscape panel, height 18.5cm, a pink ground three-handled tyg raised on a cream glazed stem foot, painted with an oval landscape panel, height 10.5cm, two squat bulbous vases, one with green glazed ground, the other cream glazed, both painted with a landscape panel, each 7.5cm high, a vase and cover with a pink rosebud and gilt trellis design against a cream ground, height 12cm, and two miniature gilt lined cups and saucers, one pink glazed, the other cobalt blue (some faults and restoration).

Estimate: £70 - £100

---

Condition Report

- Ewer - crack to upper handle terminal, otherwise ok.
- Green squat vase - rubbing to gilt rim, otherwise ok.
- Cream squat vase - light crazing to glaze, otherwise ok.
- Pink tyg - overall fine crazing to glaze, otherwise ok.
- Vase and cover - glued repair to knop of cover, otherwise ok.
- Blue cup and saucer - glued repair to cup.
- Pink cup and saucer - crazed but ok.

Created: Mon, 8th December 2025 11:06