

LOT 1640

11th December 2025

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1640

LOT 1640

A large group of Crown Ducal Orange Tree pattern tablewares, including large teapot, cover and two stands, a smaller teapot and cover, five octagonal dishes in three sizes, two tureens and three covers, ten plates 25.3cm diameter, ten plates 22.8cm diameter, twenty-three plates 18cm diameter, six two-handled soup bowls and covers, octagonal plates, square plates, fifteen cups and saucers, two sauce boats and a jug (faults).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

There is a considerable amount in this lot - where I have said 'ok' in the following list it means there is no apparent damage but there may be some minor crazing to varying degrees to some of the pieces. Any items not listed below but photographed as part of the lot have significant damage.

Small teapot - ok.

2 teapot stands - one chipped to underside rim edge, other ok with some wear

2 tureens - one ok, other cracked

6 two-handled soup bowls - 3 ok

6 soup bowl covers - 5 ok

2 sauceboats - ok

2 oval dishes - one with chips to underside rim edge, other ok

largest platter - crazed with light staining

2 medium platters - ok

2 small platters - ok with light crazing

2 eggcups - one with light staining but ok, other with small chip

Open square dish - ok

2 square plates - one ok but badly crazed, other with small chip

3 coffee cans and saucers - ok

8 cups ok

6 cups with small chips

one cup with glued handle

6 dessert plates ok

7 dinner plates ok

2 soup plates ok

1 octagonal plate ok

12 side plates ok

jug - restored spout

sugar bowl - ok

14 saucers ok

Created: Mon, 8th December 2025 11:52