

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1495

LOT 1495

A Royal Worcester potpourri jar and pierced cover, dated 1928, painted by Ricketts, signed, with still life studies of fruit against an ivory ground beneath moulded gilt shoulders and a pierced neck, puce printed marks to base, height 14cm (knop restored), together with five other pieces of Royal Worcester, comprising two jars with pierced covers painted with roses, 11cm and 11.5cm high, a bottle vase painted with roses, height 14cm, a similar smaller vase and a leaf shaped small dish (faults and restoration).

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

Ricketts fruit painted - knop repaired and restored, some minor scratches to body not through painted decoration.

Gilt detailed moulded jar with pierced cover - minute nick to inside edge of cover, not visible when in place.

Blue detailed moulded jar with pierced cover - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Tallest vase - in good condition overall.

Shortest vase - in good condition overall.

Leaf dish - broken in two and repaired with small chips.

Created: Mon, 8th December 2025 14:01