

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1422

LOT 1422

A group of Barr Worcester and Flight Barr Worcester Japan pattern wares, early 19th century, richly painted and gilt in Imari colours with a pagoda before a fence with pierced rockwork and birds amidst flowers and foliage, comprising two coffee cans with ring handles, a coffee cup with angular handle, two teacups with angular handles, four saucers, a plate, 24cm diameter, and six plates, 21cm diameter, together with a small group of similarly painted wares with gilt gadrooned rims, comprising a trio, a cup and saucer and a plate, 26.4cm diameter, various incised, impressed and printed marks (faults and restoration).

Provenance: The Flight Collection.

Estimate: £250 - £350

Condition Report

Largest plate with gadrooned rim - small chip to underside rim edge, not visible from the front, some misfiring and losses to green enamel.

6 plates - 4 in good condition, 2 with extensive repairs.

One gadrooned rim saucer cracked.

One gadrooned rim teacup restored.

Remaining items in the lot are in good condition overall with minor typical light wear and surface scratches.

Created: Mon, 8th December 2025 15:28