

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1444

LOT 1444

A Flight, Barr & Barr Worcester breakfast cup and saucer, early 19th century, painted with panels of peasants and rural scenes within gilt scroll frames against a pale blue ground beneath gilt rims, puce printed and impressed marks to bases, diameter of saucer 17.6cm, together with a similarly painted Flight, Barr & Barr teacup and saucer with gilt weed ground and gilt gadrooned rim, and a small group of other Flight & Barr Worcester, including a coffee can painted in sepia with a waterside view against a gilt overlaid apricot ground, height 6cm, a celadon green ground coffee cup and saucer with gilt 'TF' monogram and a pair of Bute shape ring handled teacups and saucers painted and gilt with oak leaves and acorns against a pale orange ground around panels enclosing gilt monograms, various incised and impressed marks (minor faults).

Provenance: The Flight Collection.

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

Pale blue ground breakfast cup and saucer - light wear to saucer, otherwise ok.

Pair of cups and saucers with gilt monogram - wear to gilt rims, otherwise ok.

Celadon green can and saucer with gilt monogram - wear to rims and well of saucer, otherwise ok.

Cup and saucer painted with pheasants against a gilt weed ground - minuscule nicks to underside edge of saucer which are hardly noticeable, otherwise all ok.

Remaining items in the lot are in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Tue, 9th December 2025 10:20