

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1453

LOT 1453

A mixed group of Flight & Barr Worcester tablewares, late 18th/early 19th century, including two ring handled teacups, a pair of saucers with gadrooned rims, a plate and another saucer with green and puce oeil-de-perdrix decoration beneath gilt banding, two ring handled teacups, a coffee can, a saucer and a saucer dish with a brown and gilt foliate scrolling band, an Etruscan teacup and saucer and saucer dish with gilt oak leaves and acorns against a celadon ground and a can and saucer with a gilt fruiting vine band above a green ground, various impressed, incised and printed marks to bases (faults and restoration). Provenance: The Flight Collection.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

Oeil-de-perdrix decoration - large plate extensively restored, plain rimmed saucer with small chips to rim edge and light wear to well, both gadrooned rim saucers with small chips to rim edge and one re-gilt.

Cup and saucer with green and gilt foliate band - saucer restored, cup cracked and worn.

Breakfast cup and saucer with brown berries on gilt stems - saucer with starcrack and wear, light wear to cup.

Can and saucer with brown and gilt foliate band - saucer riveted, can cracked.

Red ground cup and saucer painted with roses - extensively regilt.

Remaining items in the lot are in good condition overall with no significant damage and no restoration, light typical wear commensurate with age and handling.

Created: Tue, 9th December 2025 11:11