

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1454

LOT 1454

A matched Barr Worcester and Flight Barr Worcester Japan pattern part service, early 19th century, painted and gilt with dense chinoiserie flowers and fences within gilt overlaid cobalt blue borders, comprising teapot, cover and stand, nine coffee cans with ring handles, four teacups with ring handles, an Etruscan shape teacup with angular handle, seven saucers, diameter 14cm, a two-handled chocolate cup and cover with two stands, boat-shaped two-handled sugar bowl, length 18cm, circular bowl, diameter 17cm, two plates, diameter 20.8cm, and two single handled circular dishes, together with a small group of wares decorated in similar patterns, comprising a two-handled chocolate cup, cover and stand and three plates, various incised, impressed, printed and painted marks (faults and restoration). Provenance: The Flight Collection.

Estimate: £500 - £800

Condition Report

Teapot - main body extensively rivet repaired, chipping to spout and minor chip to flange, stand with some manufacturer's pitting, cover with small chips to finial.

Both chocolate cups and covers - restoration to main body of both, each with one handle and ring finial of cover restored.

Saucers - 2 probably later production and matched to service, light wear overall but generally ok.

2 single handled circular dishes - both extensively riveted.

Largest plate - old rivet repair holes, now glued.

One coffee can probably a later example matched to the service.

One chocolate cup stand extensively restored.

Most items in the lot are otherwise in good condition overall with no significant damage or repairs but typical wear commensurate with age and handling.

Created: Tue, 9th December 2025 12:11