

LOT 1668

11th December 2025

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1668

LOT 1668

A Meissen porcelain oval dish, 19th century, outside factory painted with a floral bouquet and scattered sprigs beneath a shaped purple rim, crossed swords mark in underglaze blue to base, length 26.5cm, together with a pair of Royal Crown Derby style two handled vases, spurious red printed marks to bases, height 27cm.

Estimate: £50 - £70

Condition Report

Meissen dish - small vertical hairline to rim, purple rim a bit worn, otherwise in good condition.

Royal Crown Derby style vases - please note these (as catalogued) are in the style of Royal Crown Derby with spurious marks. They are not real Royal Crown Derby. Both are in good condition.

Created: Tue, 9th December 2025 14:16