

LOT 1670

11th December 2025

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1670

LOT 1670

A mixed group of Dresden porcelain tablewares, first half 20th century, of wrythen moulded form painted with floral sprays and scattered sprigs beneath gilt scroll rims, comprising a graduated pair of muffin dishes and covers, a pair of two-handled plates, ten teacups, seven large coffee cups, eighteen small coffee cups, nine large saucers, sixteen small saucers, twenty assorted small plates, milk jug, sugar bowl and a small baluster shaped vase and cover, height 13cm, together with a small matched group of Nymphenburg tablewares (faults and repairs).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

Dresden pieces:

12 small coffee cups in good condition.

4 large coffee cups in good condition.

10 teacups in good condition.

Sugar bowl and milk jug both in good condition.

15 small saucers in good condition.

7 large saucers in good condition.

8 tiny tea plates in good condition.

6 small saucer dishes in good condition.

Small baluster vase and cover - glued knop to cover.

Pair of two-handled plates - one badly recovered, other with minor nicks to handles.

Small muffin dish and cover in good condition.

Nymphenburg pieces:

4 small tea plates ok

3 coffee cups ok.

Any items not mentioned have faults.