

Glassware / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1843

LOT 1843

A Rickett's Patent Creagh Family sealed cylinder wine bottle, circa 1820, the mid green body of three piece moulded construction with applied rim and shallow kick up, the circular seal with horse's head crest and 'A.G.C' monogram, the footrim with moulded mark 'H. Ricketts & Co. Glassworks, Bristol', moulded 'PATENT' mark to shoulders, height 27cm, together with two similar sealed wine bottles, the first with 'W.A.' monogram, height 28cm, the second with commemorative seal 'Rousdon Jubilee 1887', height 30cm, another plain cylinder wine bottle, a 'J.W. Watts Wine Merchant Coleford' Imperial Measure pale green bottle, height 23cm, a brown glass flask and an olive green tint utilitarian glass jar, probably French, height 29cm.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

AGC monogram bottle - small internal bruise approx 1cm long next to an internal air bubble to the footrim by the first 'T' of Ricketts. Otherwise in good condition.

WA monogram bottle - minute nibble to top rim edge, more easily felt than seen, and a tiny nick to the middle part of the 'W' on the seal.

Rousdon Jubilee bottle - small chip to top edge of seal approx 3mm long, otherwise in good condition.

Plain wine bottle - in good condition overall.

Coleford bottle - tiny slice nick to side edge of seal at 3 o'clock, otherwise ok.

Brown flask - in good condition overall.

Jar - extensive scratches to exterior, otherwise ok.

The bottles overall have typical wear/surface scratches commensurate with age.