

LOT 1631

11th December 2025

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1631

LOT 1631

Eleven Royal Doulton figures, comprising Annette, HN1550, Hazel, HN1797, The Bride, HN1600, Maureen, HN1770, Daisy, HN1575, Sweet and Twenty, HN1589, Rose, HN1368, Monica, HN1467, Priscilla, M24, Dainty May, HN1656, and Marigold, HN1447, together with two Royal Worcester Doughty figures, a Doulton dog and a Karl Ens figure of a girl toddler with a chick (some faults and repairs).

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

Rose - crazed but ok.

Doulton dog - tiny nicks to two paws.

Monica - badly cracked and glued, missing part of flower basket.

Sweet and Twenty - sofa cracked.

Worcester Parakeet - bird missing wings, boy missing left thumb, finely crazed.

Karl Ens toddler - missing right thumb and index finger and with glued repair to this hand, some small and indistinct nicks to hem of dress.

Annette - finely crazed but ok.

Dainty May - minute nick to one blue petal of bouquet, some fine crazing, otherwise ok.

Marigold - in good condition overall with light crazing and small manufacturing blemish to bow of hat beneath chin.

The Bride - losses to bouquet and long cracks to body, particularly the veil.

Remaining items in the lot are in good condition overall with no damage or repairs.

Created: Wed, 10th December 2025 09:44