

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1426

LOT 1426

A Barr, Flight & Barr Worcester cobalt blue ground small dish or plate, early 19th century, painted with a central peacock type fancy bird and another bird in a tree, within gilt framing and a gilt dentil scalloped rim, red printed and impressed marks to base, diameter 20.3cm, together with a blue scale ground Flight, Barr & Barr Worcester plate painted with gilt edged floral panels, impressed mark to base, diameter 23.5cm, and three Worcester saucers, including one painted in Chinese famille rose exportware style with a bird and butterfly amidst flowers, diameter 13.5cm, and one printed in blue with The Classical Ruins pattern, disguised numeral mark to base, diameter 12.3cm. Provenance: The Flight Collection.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

Blue ground plate with fancy bird to centre - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration, light wear to gilding around central panel and to rim, minor and light scratches.

Scale ground plate - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration, quite heavily scratched and with some wear/rubbing to gilding.

Export style saucer - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. No wear.

Classical Ruins saucer - very fine hairline to well, otherwise ok.

Blue and gilt striped saucer - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. No wear.

Created: Wed, 10th December 2025 10:05