

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1404

LOT 1404

A Flight, Barr & Barr Worcester trio, early 19th century, painted and gilt in Japan colours with blue leaves against an iron red ground around a gilt 'GV' monogram, comprising teacup, breakfast cup and saucer, diameter of saucer 18cm, together with two matching saucers and another teacup and saucer in the same pattern but without monogram, impressed marks to bases. Provenance: The Flight Collection.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

One of the larger monogrammed saucers heavily rubbed/worn with some regilding to the rim edge. Smallest saucer without monogram has tiny spot of professional restoration to rim edge.

Otherwise pieces in the lot are in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration, just typical wear/rubbing commensurate with age and handling.

Created: Wed, 10th December 2025 10:38