

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1443

LOT 1443

Three Flight, Barr & Barr Worcester topographical named view plates, early 19th century, each with gilt gadrooned rim, the first depicting Windsor Castle within a gilt edged claret rim, the second Keswick Lake surrounded by six butterflies and insects within a gilt edged claret rim, the third Muckross Abbey – Killarney within a gilt edged cobalt blue rim, puce printed, painted and impressed marks to bases, all 22cm diameter, together with a similar Flight, Barr & Barr Worcester claret ground topographical square dish (restored). Provenance: The Flight Collection.

Estimate: £100 - £150

---

Condition Report

Square dish - rim heavily and poorly restored some time ago so it is peeling, falling away and poorly matched.
Plates - each in good condition overall with no restoration or damage, but there is typical rubbing/wear particularly to the gilt rims of the two claret ground examples.

Created: Wed, 10th December 2025 10:59