

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1475

LOT 1475

A Paris parcel gilt and bisque porcelain inkstand, early to mid 19th century, modelled as Old Father Time seated in a boat being steered by Cupid, a small gilt and white jug and a vase between them being the inkwell and pen holder, the boat itself with patterned gilt exterior and swan's head bow, raised on an oval base moulded with flower and mask detail against a gilt ground with vermicular decoration, gilt painted mark to base, height 18.5cm (restored). Provenance: The Flight Collection.

Estimate: £70 - £100

---

Condition Report

Figures and elements extensively restored and with missing elements. Main boat and base section overall in good condition with some firing cracks.

Created: Wed, 10th December 2025 11:47