

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1402

LOT 1402

A Flight, Barr & Barr Worcester coffee cup and saucer and teacup and saucer, early 19th century, painted and gilt with kakiemon style panels against a gilt overlaid cobalt blue ground, beneath gilt gadroon moulded rims, impressed marks, together with a matching Etruscan shape teacup, two saucers and a saucer dish, diameter 20cm. Provenance: The Flight Collection.

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

Gadrooned rim saucers - one with small glued chip to upper rim edge, other with regilding to rim edge.
One plain rimmed saucer extensively restored.

Remaining items in the lot are in good condition overall with minor typical light wear.

Created: Wed, 10th December 2025 12:21