

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1459

LOT 1459

An unfinished Flight, Barr & Barr Worcester plate from the William IV service, circa 1830, with a central vacant cartouche and six smaller to the rim against an underglaze cobalt blue ground, within a gadrooned rim, with later gilt overlaid decoration, impressed mark to base, diameter 22cm, together with a Flight & Barr Worcester plate painted and gilt with a border of oak leaves and acorns to the black ground rim, unusual black painted mark to base, diameter 22.5cm, two other Flight, Barr & Barr Worcester plates painted with peasant figures, impressed and puce printed marks to bases, largest 22.3cm diameter, and a set of four Barr Worcester plates painted with botanical subjects within gilt key fret type rims, incised 'B' mark to bases, diameter 20.8cm (faults and restoration). Provenance: The Flight Collection.

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

William IV service plate - 2 tiny nicks to rim edge, one professionally restored, light wear to gilding and scratches to glaze.

Acorns plate - small professionally restored chip to upper rim edge, some wear primarily to centre.

Yellow ground plate with peasant - haircrack through centre and regilt circular frame to main panel.

Remaining items in the lot are in good condition overall with typical wear commensurate with age and handling.

Created: Wed, 10th December 2025 12:30