

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 11th December 2025 / Lot 1463

LOT 1463

A set of three Barr, Flight & Barr Worcester topographical named view plates, early 19th century, each apricot rim gilt with a vermicular pattern, depicting Brougham Castle Westmoreland, Ivy Bridge Devon and a View near Lyme in Dorsetshire, puce printed and impressed marks to bases with puce painted titles, diameter 20.7cm, together with four other pieces of Flight & Barr Worcester with topographical views, comprising two plates depicting Friars Carse Hermitage - Dumfriesshire and a View at Ballyroan Dublin, both 20.7cm diameter, a plate with gadrooned rim depicting Melrose Abbey, diameter 25cm, and a square dish depicting St. Bernards Well near Edinburgh, 23.5cm square (minor faults). Provenance: The Flight Collection.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

Plate with view at Ballyroan - restored section to rim between 10 and 11 o'clock.

Friars Carse plate - quite scratched and worn.

Square dish - scratched and a bit worn, tiny nicks to rim edge.

Melrose Abbey plate - heavily scratched.

Otherwise items in the lot are in good condition overall with typical wear commensurate with age and handling.

Created: Wed, 10th December 2025 12:42