LOT 1178

An early 20th century walnut Vienna style wall clock with eight day movement striking on a gong, the two piece enamelled dial with 'FMS' (Friedrich Mauthe) maker's mark and black Roman hour numerals, the case with turned finials, glazed door and turned columns, height 101cm, with pendulum.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

1178. The case is in generally good cosmetic condition, except it is missing the finial to the centre of the surmount, otherwise typical light surface scratches, scuffs and wear.

Glass in good condition.

Dial in good order.

Both trains wind smoothly but unfortunately it does not currently run, may require a service to return to full working order.
