

LOT 1121

5th February 2026

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 5th February 2026 / Lot 1121

LOT 1121

A Chinese yellow-ground blue and white porcelain vase, mark of Yongzheng but 20th century or later, the shouldered tapering body painted with a band of lotus and scrolling leafy tendrils, beneath a flared neck with vertical stiff leaf band, underglaze blue six-character mark to base, height 29cm.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

1121. The bottom section of the vase has been broken clean off and re-glued. The crack line is approx 1.7cm up from the footrim and is visible all the way around. Otherwise, the vase is in generally good condition with not other damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches and wear to glaze. There is also a small firing crack/hairline bruise to the footrim.

Weights 1243g.

Created: Tue, 27th January 2026 10:29