

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 26th February 2026 / Lot 1470

LOT 1470

A Wedgwood Coral and Bronze Fairyland lustre vase, circa 1925, designed by Daisy Makeig-Jones, shape No. 2410, decorated in the Willow pattern, gold printed Portland Vase mark to base and painted pattern No. Z5349, height 21.5cm.

Estimate: £120 - £180

---

Condition Report

Lacking cover.

There is a small nick to the footrim which has been decorated over so is a manufacturing issue - otherwise the vase is in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

There are some scratches to the vase overall revealing the white body beneath the glaze, and other areas where the glaze is lacking and therefore the white body beneath the glaze is clearly visible, e.g., to the neck rim.

Created: Wed, 18th February 2026 12:06